Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

I. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mallory (US 6,335,933 B1).

1. Regarding claim 1 and 2 – Mallory discloses a step of transmitting a request command for frame configuration modification refer to column 2 line 61 to column 3 line 10 and Figure 6 and column 7 lines 8 to 26, the receiver sends the transmitter a negative acknowledgement to request prior transmissions which is a frame configuration modification request.

Mallory discloses a step of, after transmitting the command, continuing to receive frames with configuration before the modification and at the same time waiting for frame with configuration after the modification refer to column 2 line 61 to column 3 line 10 and Figure 6 and column 7 lines 8 to 26, the receiver continues to receive frames while waiting for the transmitter is retransmit the lost frames or frames in error which are the frames after modification.

2. Regarding claim 3 – Mallory discloses that the frame receiving means receives frames and a request command for frame configuration modification, and the frame transmitting means, when the request command is received, carries out the modification of transmitting frames according to the command, refer to column 2 line 61 to column 3 line 10 and Figure 6 and column 7 lines 8 to 26, the receiver sends the transmitter a negative acknowledgement to request prior transmissions which is a frame configuration modification request, the transmitter comprises both a receiver to receive the frame modification to retransmit and the transmitter to retransmit the lost or nack'ed frames.

3. Regarding claim 4 – Mallory discloses the frame transmitting means transmits a request command for frame configuration modification through a control channel, and the frame receiving means receives a request command for frame configuration modification through the control channel, the control channel is the path or link from the receiver to the transmitter, refer to Figure 4 which depicts the control frames and column 2 line 61 to column 3 line 10 and Figure 6 and column 7 lines 8 to 26.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 2662

Claim 5 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

1. Fukunaga et al. (US 6,169,821 B1) discloses a picture coder, picture decoder, and picture transmission system.
2. Terry (US 6,061,356) discloses a method and apparatus for switching routable frames between disparate media.
